

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COUNCILS

Scheme Application Redesign Project Pilot phase

Pilot phase

The new scheme application framework launched in July 2021

There will be a one-year transition period for associations to begin using the new framework opportunities for scheme managers to learn about the new framework

aligning the launch with annual reporting and other activities associations involved in testing were interested in using the new framework as soon as possible

Pilot phase: 1-year transition

July - August 2021

Application 2021 launch:

- website
publication

September – December 2021

Integrate:

- Association Professional Standards Report
- *Plain English
enhancements*

January – May 2022

Roundtables for stakeholders:

- Current and prospective associations

June 2022

Application Guidelines and Template

phase-out:

- transition
complete

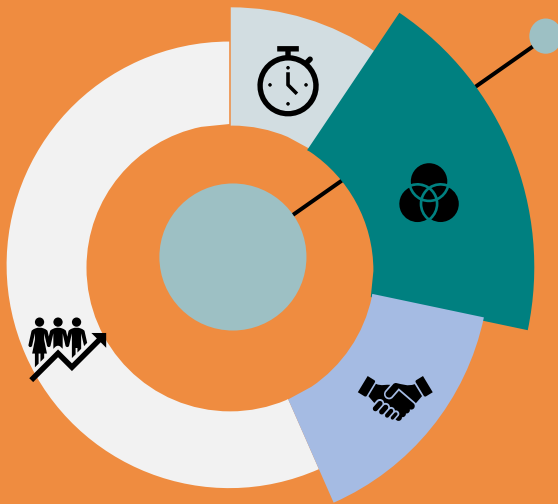

June 2021

Application 2021

framework:

- approval
- delivery

aligned closely to legislation

more opportunities for face-to-face engagement with the Authority modularised and scalable layout allows feedback for each module submitted streamlined approach for new, remake and amended scheme applications greater focus on consumers and their protection aligned to Strategy 2021 goals

Benefits you get from the new framework

Need more information?

Workshops

- Workshops incorporated into the scheme application process (pre, during and post-application)
- A chance for one-on-one learning with Authority staff
- Face-to-face or videoconference contact.

Forums

- Regular Forums held twice a year
- Opportunity to provide training on the new framework.

Website

- Regular updates during pilot on Councils' website
- Interactive micro-site to house the new framework
- Continued exploration of digital scheme application opportunities.

Correspondence

- Direct contact with the Authority – email or phone.